Sinaipai Neer Katti (PCOS) Awareness Program - 05.03.2026

On 5 March 2026, a “Polycystic Ovary Awareness Camp” was organized at Annai Hajira Women's College by the National Service Scheme (NSS) in connection with International Women's Day. The programme aimed to create awareness about Polycystic Ovary Syndrome (PCOS), its causes, symptoms, and preventive measures.

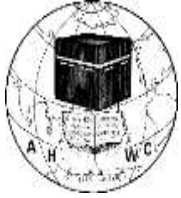

Professors from the Government Siddha Medical College, Palayamkottai—Dr. T. Maharasi Maniselvi and Dr. S. Sujatha—delivered special addresses, highlighting the importance of early diagnosis and healthy lifestyle practices. Trainee doctor Dr. Padmapriya spoke about the role of yoga in managing PCOS and maintaining overall well-being.

Medical college students conducted a practical session on yoga and provided hands-on training with demonstrations. Faculty members and students from all departments actively participated in the camp and benefited from the informative sessions.

The programme was highly useful in promoting awareness about women's health issues and encouraging students to adopt healthy habits in their daily lives.

Debate on Voter Awareness - 02.04.2026

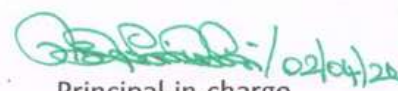

On 2 April 2026, a debate programme on Voter Awareness was held at Annai Hajira Women's College under the guidance of the Tirunelveli District Collector, with the aim of promoting 100% voter participation.

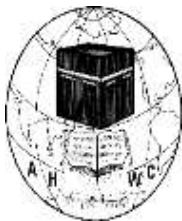

The debate was conducted on the topic, "What is more essential to ensure 100% voting: persuasive awareness or strict laws?" The programme was presided over by Mrs. P. Gomathi Krishnamoorthy, District Revenue Officer, Tirunelveli, who addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of active participation in the democratic process.

Students actively participated in the debate, presenting their views with enthusiasm and confidence. The session encouraged critical thinking and created awareness about the importance of voting and civic responsibility.

Following the debate, a Voters' Pledge was administered to all participants, motivating them to exercise their right to vote and contribute to the strengthening of democracy.

World Tuberculosis Day – Awareness Programme - 08.04.2026

A Medical Camp was organized on the occasion of World Tuberculosis Day at Annai Hajira Women's College on 8 April 2026. The programme was conducted by the National Service Scheme (NSS) in collaboration with the Health Department to promote awareness and early detection of tuberculosis (TB).

The main objective of the camp was to identify symptoms of TB and to provide basic health screening for students and staff. Medical professionals conducted preliminary check-ups and offered guidance on recognizing early symptoms such as persistent cough, fever, weight loss, and fatigue. Awareness was also created about the causes, prevention, and treatment of tuberculosis. Participants were educated on the importance of maintaining hygiene, proper nutrition, and timely medical consultation. Informative materials were distributed to enhance understanding among the participants.

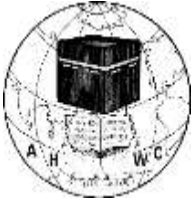

The camp was highly beneficial in promoting health consciousness and encouraging early diagnosis. It also helped in reducing stigma associated with tuberculosis and motivated individuals to seek medical help when needed.
